ANSWER SHEET

"The greater the obstacle, the more glory in overcoming it" is a Molière's quotation. Actually, I would like to comment it. In fact, then ^{if} you are going to do or get something that you want, you should be brave and powerful enough. But the more power you will use, the greater ¹⁵ pleasure you will get. ~~It~~

In my opinion, this is true. If you want to make your dream come true, you must go over the big amount of obstacles. And if any of them ^{will} ~~would~~ be really big, you will do much more, than you was expected. But the pleasure of overcoming it will be impressive. Now I'm going to give two reasons to support my opinion. Firstly, then a man has done something over his power, he will get a great pleasure for himself. Secondly, then a man has made any good thing, other people will love him more.

For example, a minister of our country has made an improvement in economy. After that he earned a great glory, moved higher in his career. The second example is about a character of a fairytale. He wanted to become a knight and he did. That was a real happiness for him.

In conclusion, the quotation of Molière is great. I think in the same way as him.
